    movies, the books, and when I heard there was going to be a TV show I was genuinely excited, especially considering it was going to be directed by none other than Bryan Fuller. I could go on and on in praising the cast, storylines, but I find that unnecessary. The macabre of the show is just not that, macabre that is. It\u0192s more an art show that consumes all your senses for thorough enjoyment.
